

New Jersey's do not call legislation is among the best in the country and has helped tremendously in reducing the number of unwanted telephone calls to our home. We should continue to support strict rules regarding no call lists.